Right to be children

On the 20th November 2023, World Children's Day, the Marist Foundation for International Solidarity ETS (FMSI), whose mission is the protection of children's rights worldwide, in collaboration with the Secretariat for Solidarity of the Marist Brothers Institute, is hosting a conference focused on children's rights. The event aims at highlighting challenges and difficulties involving boys and girls, promoting their rights and safety. We aim to share knowledge, experiences and to reflect on future actions within the Marist Family to ensure that every child can fully enjoy his or her fundamental rights.
